DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "set of wheels" (cl. 28); "means for detachably securing said moldboard at selected angular position" (cl. 31) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-7, 20-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Johnson (501515).

Johnson discloses:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 8-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Johnson (501515), in view of Claude (EP 319420 A2).

Johnson discloses the claimed invention except for a different material design for the endless conveyor as claimed.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use perforated/chain link material in constructing the endless the conveyor, as shown in fig 8 of Claude, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin , 125 USPQ 416.

Claims 10-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Johnson (501515), in view of Persoons et al (4287707).

Johnson discloses the claimed device except for the tines, bin as claimed.

Persoons discloses (it meets also the limitations of at least the independent claims) that it is known in the art to provide a tines on the conveyor (see fig 2G) and cooperating tines or brush (see different design choices: fig 2A, 2B, 2H etc...), bin/hopper supported on the frame (col. 3, 24-25). Examiner takes Official Notice that bin/hopper with wheels & hinged cover is very well known in the art.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the conveyor & means for receiving the articles of Johnson with the alternate design taught by Persoons, in order to ensure that the conveyor stays clean from the articles, and make it more convenient in collecting the articles.
